

Scene in Brides New York

On October 10, Brides.com and Brides New York hosted a networking event at the beautiful Cipriani 23rd Street. Nestled in the former Toy Building, the newly renovated space provided an elegant, old-New York setting for more than 600 guests to meet and mingle with the editors and other top event professionals from the area. Celebrity cake designer Sylvia Weinstock and Ron Ben Israel were among the evening's notable guests.
